

This has been requested to be circulated by the EMDBC Committee in the interest of all associated with Basketball.

Play by the Rules websiteLink:
www.playbytherules.net.au

All Team Managers are required complete the below free Online Courses

- Child Protection
- Harassment and discrimination

The courses are short (taking no more than two hours), may be done in part or all at once, and make extensive use of case studies. Once these courses are complete, please forward your certificates to secretary@easternmaverick.com.au

There are sections of interest such as posters/flyers that can be downloaded and printed which you may want to put into the Team Managers folder also. These can be found under the Resource tab on the website.

Play by the Rules also offers short interactive scenarios on particular sports issues. These courses are not assessed however they focus on raising awareness and providing information to assist sports respond positively to issues. Team Managers and Coaches should find them particularly useful although the courses would be of interest to anyone involved in sport.

EMDBC COMMITTEE